Thanksgiving Proclamation of the Red Men

WIGWAM OF THE GREAT SACHEM

High Point, N. C., November 7th, 1910

To the Tribes and Councils Under the Jurisdiction of the Great Council of North Carolina, Improved Order of Red Men, the Great Chiefs, and Chiefs of the Various Hunting Grounds:

GREETING—Thanksgiving Proclamation

In obedience to the dictates of the Great Inchoonee, who in his wisdom saw fit to inaugurate a Thanksgiving proclamation in behalf of the Improved Order of Red Men, and being thoroughly in accord with such a beautiful innovation therefore I, W. L. STAMEY, GREAT SACHEM, of the GREAT COUNCIL OF NORTH CAROLINA OF THE IMPROVED ORDER OF RED MEN, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby issue this, my proclamation, designating THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24TH, 1910, being the 24th Sun, Beaver Moon, G. S. D., 419, as a day of Thanksgiving and sacred reflection unto the Great Spirit.

WHEREAS, it has been the time honored American custom for the President of the United States and the Governors of the several states, moved by a sense of gratitude toward the Creator and Ruler of the Universe for the manifold blessings bestowed upon the American people to set apart a certain day in each year for thanksgiving and sacred reflection. (This practice finds its origin in the customs of the League of the Iroquois, or the six nations of the American Indians who held convocations once in each Great Sun to offer up praise and thanksgiving to the Great Spirit for the many blessings bestowed upon them.)

It is, therefore, fitting and proper that the members of the Improved Order of Red Men, holding to so much that is good and commendable in the practices of our ancient prototypes, and also being patriotic citizens of the American government, should likewise set apart a certain day for thanksgiving, praise and sacred reflection unto the Giver of everything good.

A REQUEST

I therefore request the chiefs of the Tribes and Councils under the jurisdiction of the Great Council of North Carolina, to set apart said day as such, and further request that a public service of some kind, function, or social entertainment be held by the various Tribes and Councils, of such nature and character as will tend to impress the paleface world with the commendable teachings, tenets, and principles of the Order, as well as the high class of its membership.

THE OLD DOLLAR BILL

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2. — The old United States $1 note, which disappeared from circulation in 1885 is to be called into service again. Secretary McVeagh today decided that the enormous demand for bills of smaller denomination warrants an issue, which was authorized in 1907, but until now has never seemed really necessary.

The plates, which have been preserved in the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, will be pressed into service and beginning tomorrow the notes will be issued at about the rate of $1,200,000 a day until the demand for small bills is met.

Banks all over the country have been complaining that there were not enough $1 silver certificates to meet the demand.
